

---

Subject: : Mayflys (Order: Ephemeroptera )

Topic: : March Brown - Maccaffertium vicarium

Re: Need to figure this one out

Author: : sandfly

Date: : 2012/1/12 13:55:21

URL:

BAETIDAE Callibaetis hatches every year about that time all over the north central region and is mistaken for MB's and gray fox all the time..had a good hatch this past spring but water was to high on pine, but smaller streams produced..