

Subject: : Mayflys (Order: Ephemeroptera )

Topic: : March Brown - Maccaffertium vicarium

Re: Need to figure this one out

Author: : sandfly

Date: : 2012/1/12 14:37:37

URL:

never said it was related, just another mistaken for the MB. Here it comes off the end of may-beginning of June. On a breezy day they sail like small sailboats all over and the browns go nuts.. Most guys who are not sure of what species group alot of speckled flies as MB's and Foxes when they are not..See it all the time on the streams..