

Subject: : Stoneflies (Order: Plecoptera)

Topic: : Early Stone - Taeniopteryx Nivalis

Re: Early Stone

Author: : ryguyfi

Date: : 2012/1/14 11:54:00

URL:

I see little blacks around my house for about 6 months out of the year. I saw one as early as about October for a few months, and then they pick back up in Febuary or March depending on weather. They're the ones afish posted. I'm sure different species, but very similar in size and color. They're typically around a size 18, sometimes smaller.