I just looked up this post (gotta luv the advanced search feature) and I'm answering for two reasons. To bump it up because it is timely advice for this time of year. Next, because I'm laughing my a$$ off at some of the comments. Jayl, you got right to the heart of the matter! I was drinking my coffee and didn't expect your answer and it went down the wrong pipe. Now I have a coffee stain on my shirt! 😊
