I was mostly self taught, but learned pretty quickly. I spent lots of time in the backyard before ever goin out. Read lots and lots and paid attention to other fisherman when I made it on the water.

My one piece of advice I wish I'd have had was. When you see an overhanging branch or patch of brush that has about 500 flies stuck in it. Just walk away, Your not the ONE guy that can cast around it.

I was always the guy that made it 501 flies. LOI
