Sky,

No i have not read it but alas i have perused it an never seem to have extra cash at the show to buy it.It seems like a good book the other books an media i mentioned earler are a great resource as well,also Aaron Jasper has just released a companion to his first dvd i haven;t gotten it yet but have watched some trailers its a good dvd. I just got Daniel's Dynamic Nymphing book,its a great book so far i could do with out the casting part,Dave Rothrock is my mentor where casting nymphs is concerned an he is a machine on the stream and a excellent teacher/guide,and treasure.

Ill have to buy it i guess
