So there has been alot of talk about food for the jam. So I thought we could get a list of peoples who are gunna bring grub for the congregation. Beening a professional chef I would love for us to get a 'pot luck' so to speak for the jam. I think it would be fun and delicious for us to arrange something for possibly saturday night? Let me here your input!

Saturday would be a good night. As I recall, we had use of a nice large gas grill at the pavillion. I don't prepare much ahead, but will bring grilling foods to share.

Have the chili cook-off Saturday as well. And, if you have special beers you'd like to share or even ice cubes, bring those too!
