My gf has gone along and had a "picnic" on the bank with her 2 girls. She would like to go spin fishing or river fishing sometime but I don't think she would ever fly fish. That is fine with me because it just wouldn't be fun for me at all like stated above. It would be work to help her constantly. I'd be willing to do that if I knew it was something she would keep at, but I'm sure that wouldn't be the case. Besides, I go fishing for 2 reasons... Because I love it and because as much as I love her, I need a break and some ME time!!!!
