Many years ago my wife decided she wanted to give fly fishing a try. Heck, I even built her a fly rod.

Anyhow, it was like teaching my son to fly fish all over agin... just worse. 😬 I knew she was just trying to do it to spend more time with me, but thankfully, she gave up on it. 😄 She's a great gal, and tried hard, but fly fishing just wasn't her cup of tea... and caused me great pain. 🙄
