

Subject: : Paflyfish General Forum

Topic: : Zebras

Re: Zebras

Author: : Raven456

Date: : 2012/2/17 18:44:12

URL:

I'm a novice at tying flies and the zebra midge was one of the first flies I learned to tie that I would consistently catch fish with. I'll fish it all year round in this area, primarily as a secondary fly. My personal preference is to tie it with a glass bead head, size 18 and 20, black primarily but olive and brown can work well too.