ron,

As a fly fisherman living in Philly, I've often been interested in your book. I've heard shining reviews, but have yet to purchase a copy. Do you know if the Penn bookstore, or the Barnes and Noble in Rittenhouse would have a copy? If not, do you have any recommendations? I don't like to buy books online, for whatever reason. I like to hold it in my hand before I purchase.

Also, if you sell them directly, I'd be willing to purchase one from you.
