Could be the ultimate means of spot burning 😞 Seems novel enough, but compared to a smart phone with Internet access, I can't imagine they are adding a whole lot that wouldn't already be available. Seems more geared to the larger river/lakes angler, which I am decidedly not. Since it only works with a Garmin, or an iOS device (looks like they missed their Feb. 1 Android target date), gimme a Delorme and my Thunderbolt and I'm good to go!
