Pat, we have had this discussion about tippet before and I know you are not a fan of super strong for tippet material. I know you like it for the leader but just not the tippet. I used 8X SS for the first time the other day and I was amazed at how well it fished. I had 7 fish on dries on a creek where I most days have to work hard for 3 fish on 7X. A guy that fishes said creek often from my TU told me he uses nothing but 9X. Fun days ahead!
