It's odd about the Downs fly box site. Somebody is paying to keep the website up, there's a price list, and the 800 number hasn't been disconnected, but nobody answers it.

Although the dollar store waist pack I'm using works fine, I wanted to move up to a rigid chest box before Summer fishing.

I ordered a Richardson box last Fall. Although Bob Hegedus, the owner, very promptly replied to a question I had, I think he's so buried in orders that it may take a year to receive a box.

One of his new boxes, all tricked out, went for $600 on eBay recently.
