I subscribe to Eastern FF and look forward to each issue. This past issue was the first of their regional editions. They've had some nice write ups of some PA streams in the past, and they aren't always the famous stretches you find in every other mag. I don't know that they've ever presented a stream that wasn't in most guide books out there, though, so I'm not really sure I'm on board with the spot- burning outrage.
