Awesome fish. I want to send you both a congratulations and a sorry for your loss. Fishing will never be the same after your first musky. Its like crack with the addiction. Soon you will forget about trout. I love trout fishing but I find it hard to do anymore since I have been musky fishing. It is the most awesome feeling in the world especially since you put in so much time for so little reward but when it happens it is such a rush. Congrats.

haha yes, i'm worried about this ^, but ok with it at the same time...totally worth it.

glad i was able to get in on a share of the excitement with you and play camera man

You kiddin? If i was by myself, I probably would have packed it in and switched spots by the time you saw the first swirl. Gotta go back and find one for you now!
