Dear ryguyfi,

My vote goes to the Scientific Anglers System 2-L model 78 reel. It will hold a WF8 line and 120 yards of backing and the reel is bullet-proof. They run $ 129.95 but you can occasionally find them on sale for less.

Edited to say that Cabela's carries this reel, the price is from their new 2007 Fly Fishing catalog.

Regards,
