If you guys want to get together this Saturday at the Little Lehigh, that's fine with me.

Let us know if you can make it - let's say 9AM by the fly shop. We'll go over your gear to make sure everything is OK, and do some casting if you'd like. We can go over nymphing and dry fly fishing, too. Anyone is welcome for this. Think of this as a post-Newbie Jam "checkup".

Fox - you up for this? If we can get a few experienced guys to help out, we can work with everyone individually. I'd really like to get the confidence level of these guys up before the upcoming hatches.
