I try to do one camping/fishing trip a year so I am definitely used to the schedule. This will be my first trip to Penns.

wake up, eat, nymph fish til the hatches start, fish til I can't stand up. Break for food, fish the remainder of the hatch and spinner fall, then break for dinner. Tie on big ugly streamers and fish til I really can't stand up. Build a fire and bullshit for a couple hours then sleep. Wash, rinse repeat til its time to go home.

As you can see, the priority is to fish :)
