

---

Subject: : Caddisflies (Order: Trichoptera)

Topic: : Grannoms Caddis - Brachycentrus americanus

Re: Grannoms Caddis - Brachycentrus americanus

Author: : sandfly

Date: : 2012/4/11 17:23:32

URL:

Quote:

I used to see a caddis on the clarion river in april that had a medium gray wing, with an olive colored body - size #16. Not quite sure what it was - but I don't believe it was a grannom.

most likely a early smoky wing sedge..comes off before the grannom and some mistake it it also...