All are welcome. This will be a good get-to-know your fellow PAFF'ers day as well as a help day. It will be as much about enjoying yourself as learning from others. None of us ever have our sh*t together every time out. I have been doing this for 20 years and I sometimes feel lost on a given stream situation. Hell the Saucon (a stream I have fished for those 20 years) had my number this past summer and fall. There is a very good reason we still call the sport "fly-fishing" and not "fly-catching". Come on out, if not to learn, to bust my chops, it has become a necessary PAFF past time which newbies are also required to master.
