

Subject: : Mayflys (Order: Ephemeroptera )

Topic: : Cream Cahill - Maccaffertium Interpunctatum

Re: One from last year

Author: : Chaz

Date: : 2012/4/18 22:07:22

URL:

E. Vitreus is a pink lady aka pink cahill. However troutnut has them as a sulphur which is the only time I've seen troutnut get something wrong. It is E Vitreus. I don't care what the common name you use for the fly pictured.

<http://www.troutnut.com/hatch/556/Mayfly-Epeorus-vitreus-Sulphur>