For those of you that wear the fit-over type of sunglasses; have you ever seen Brimz?

These babies clip right on the visor of your hat and flip up or down as needed. They come in a polarized version and the quality is very good. They have no ear pieces so I find them cooler in the hot weather and you can't lose them unless you loose your hat.

I've had mine for about 3 years or more and I love them. Fortunately I only need magnifiers to see the bloody fly so flip down Hat Eyes do the trick for me...
