This being my first Jam, I've come to realize what fun I have missed. I was invited by Heritage to bunk in his cabin since he had an extra bed. Thank you Heritage for your generosity. I had a great time meeting lots of the others over the weekend.

After arriving on Friday and meeting with my roomies we fished a short time on Spring but not much was doing. After checking in and a good lunch we headed back to try another section of Spring and WOW what a night!! I caught four nice size browns all about 12-14" two on nymphs and two on dries.

Saturday morning I was even more thrilled to be able to eat two incredible sticky buns with my coffee that Old Lefty had brought with him. (please tell your wife thank you for me). Thanks for not only the sticky buns Lefty, but also it was a pleasure chatting with you about everything. Oh, and you might still be recovering but DAMN you can cast a mile dude!!! It was great to be able to watch you giving tips to the other guys. Oh yea, don't forget I put my order in for that book, hahahaha!!

Saturday night was great too!! Oh, the chili!! and that tenderloin, OMG!! Incredible!!! Between the food and the music, it was a great time. I do regret that I missed all of the excitement that happened at around 3am. I didn't get everyone's name that I talked to but thanks to everyone that was there. I will make it a point to make the Spring Jam every year from now on!!!
