Volksnurse and I have been discussing trying to get something together for what seems to be a decent Bucks county (& surrounding area) contingent in here.

We should throw a couple of dates out there (June), weekend and/or weekday evenings and see what works best for all and/or just use this as a reference for fishers to get together. I am horrible with scheduling and usually go with the flow so throw out some dates and lets see if we can make this happen. Also, the more experienced area fishers, throw out a few decent fishing creeks and we can try to find a destination that is accommodating to all if anyone is interested.
