

Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Rock Snot Discovered in the Yough

Re: Rock Snot Discovered in the Yough

Author: : Wildcat23

Date: : 2012/6/5 7:33:27

URL:

Not good news. But lets be realistic. It is just as likely that rock snot moves into new bodies of water by migratory birds than it is by felt soled waders. Plus, anyone who fishes the yough regularly knows that there is a tremendous amount of algae up by the dam. It was so bad in the early spring, that coupled with low water releases it was next to impossible to fish nymphs or a dropper without constantly picking the slime off of your fly.