

---

Subject: : Professional Stream Reports

Topic: : First Weekend in June

Re: First Weekend in June

Author: : dryflyguy

Date: : 2012/6/5 12:09:43

URL:

I fished the yough yesterday.

And saw - besides the typical BWO's, sulphers, and caddis - another mayfly that I can't really recall ever seeing before.

It was a large cahill - #12 - with a bright orange body, top and bottom. And the fish really liked them.

I did pretty well with a regular, tanned body #12 cahill.

But I'm going to tie a few of these up