It is getting bothersome to PM people who post inappropriate threads here. I will just bump this thread by posting the name of the poster each time I have to move a thread:

Your topic has been moved to the appropriate forum. Only actual stream reports belong in the Stream Reports Forum. Requests for information belong in the Stream Locations Forum. Other non-reports belong in the General Forum. Please see Dave Kile's stickie notes at the top of the Stream Reports Forum for information about what is an acceptable stream report. Thanks for your understanding.
