I had an idea for a summer get together. I was thinking that maybe either July 14 or 21, we have a newbie reunion at the Little Lehigh. Of course, anyone is invited. I say we get there very early and fish the morning away followed by a picnic afternoon. Everyone brings something (soda (not sure if beer is permitted), snacks, a grill, etc). I think we'd have a blast.

How do you guys feel about my (well actually Stagger gave me the idea) idea?
