Foxy .. 70 degrees is the tipping point, no?

Also, with the weather we have had right now it is fairly safe all day or should it be early AM & Late PM for trout

//Per HA .. next gadget I get is a thermometer

Yes 70 is definitely the top. I prefer to only fish early mornings this time of year but early evening could be okay too, we just stay out of the middle of the day. Yes, thermometer is a must in June thru September.
