Wow!

I loved this thread. Awesome pics and looked like a top notch trip. I haven't been able to get out much with the baby and a new girlfriend but she has shown interest in my passion for this sport and is all for me getting a boat to take family trips with.

Wont be long. Have fun WW fly-fishing is far superior to trout any day of the week. Currently I'm waiting for my daughter to get up from her nap and he are going to nail some largemouth.

Again thanks for the pics!
