That sounds ridiculous to me. Fishing isn't a fashion statement in my mind.

I pair my $1000 rod with a $30 reel.

it's a fashion statement to me, pcray! but i only have a "orvis helios @ $775" and i pair it with a orvis large arbor reel @ $175.

to me, it's a "balance" and "eye candy" thing.

i just like fly fishing a lot more with a top shelf outfit. i think i catch more fish with good tackle also?

same thing with a evening beverage: with spin tackle, or cheapo fly stuff, i like a cold bud light..... but with my top shelf fly tackle, only fine chilled red wine will do!
