Something that I would like to mention about this magazine is that you can go to the website and down load a pdf of all 3 regions each issue now under your subscription service/account section. You can also download pdf files of past issues back to 2009 I think for $3.95 if you are new to the magazine. You can also order paper copies prior to 2009. There are some good ones from the past on PA streams. Once you have them in your account they are always supposed to be there for future download.

This is very usefull to me to keep these on the laptop or iPad and I'll always have them when I'm traveling.
