

Subject: : Stream Reports

Topic: : Tulpehocken Creek, Berks County?, 7/3/2012

Re: Tulpehocken Creek, Berks County?, 7/3/2012

Author: : jeff

Date: : 2012/7/6 10:00:16

URL:

What used to be the deep part of the lake is filled with sediment from the tribs flowing in. TCTU has been trying to stabilize stream banks of said tribs to decrease sediment in lake but the damage is done. Basically the lake is turning into a flat bottom. No place for cool water to last in the lake throughout the summer. It just isn't there. Until they drain and dredge trout will die during summer months. Don't hold your breath.