Either have I, Swattie. Every fish I've ever lost, including the pigs, have been because of user error. I've caught some hefty smallies in big water in a boat, both of us headed the opposite direction. Landed some, lost some. The ones I lost, I lost 'cause I'm a moron.

Truth be told, though, if I could afford a really nice, upper end (not Cheeky!) reel, I'd buy one. Until then, I just gotta make what I can afford work!
