A couple of my friends from a certain fly shop in your area and Reading have been floating the Skuke for bass pretty often. They have been having lots of luck. Nothing as big as the one I caught on the Lehigh, but lots of numbers.

Nice, I think i know those guys as well. If you continue the trips, let me know if you guys ever have room for an extra! I've been meaning to hit the lehigh too...I'll let you know next time I'm fishing up that way.

The best SMB fishing on the Skuke seems to be from Reading and upstream. Give it a try.

Thats where I was this morning...furthest north I've been in a while. I did like how the water looked. PM coming your way...
