A 40 page, comic book style writing called: The Curtis Creek Manifesto – By Sheridan Anderson has been recommended. Any thoughts on that?

EDIT: I just grabbed a copy at B&N. I'm not a big fan of comic style, but it has gotten excellent reviews and perhaps most importantly I have a 10 Year Old Daughter who likes to fish. We haven't gotten out nearly as much as we should, but that might be a blessing now. Having little experience in spin-casting, might make teaching her to fly fish that much easier. The kid's got skill though, so it shouldn't be an issue and this book should be perfect.
