Dear Smike,

You have Tenkara and I have my old Uncle Buck's. It's still just fishing so I'll never begrudge anyone their method of choice.

I will say that the old Uncle Buck's is fairly limber and it was a lot of fun dropping crickets and minnows on unsuspecting bluegill and crappies with it.

I'm going to get that old pole out and drop a twister or tube jig off of it and drift fish from my boat.

I'm guessing it will probably still be a lot of fun, but I know I'll never get a bluegill on it like the one I lost in Holley Lake in DeFuniak Springs FL 30 years.

It was easily a 4 pound bluegill, and as I was swinging it over the side of the boat my buddy Gramps woke up and rocked the boat, slapping the fish and knocking it off the hook.

Hell, I have something to shoot for at least. 😊

Regards,

Tim Murphy 😊
