Are the pescadors awesome? Now that they are owned by 3M, I think I can get those pliers for $80 or so. They look like the end all/be all of fishing pliers. Last pair you would need.

Sbecker, I was not being sarcastic or joking. I seriously had no idea why that needle was a part of the pliers. I even considered cutting or filing it down, because I saw myself punching a hole in my waders, hand, or finger while using them. Good stuff for painted jig heads etc.
