On the website:

$15 and up, you get a poster

$25 and up, you get a t-shirt

$30 and up, you get the DVD

$45 and up, DVD plus poster

$55 and up, DVD plus t-shirt

$75 and up, DVD + t-shirt + poster

$100 and up, all 3 plus your name in the credits

$350 and up, all of the above + a signed photograph

$1000 and up, all of the above + guided trip for 2 in Colorado.

$5000 and up, all of the above + name in the executive producer credit

$10000 and up, all of the above + a sea dart, the wooden kayak used in the film.

So $30 is essentially buying the film. That's fair. Or you can go crazy and give them tons of money as a donation with some perks.

By the way, it looks like they already reached their goal.
