
Subject: : Conservation

Topic: : Does the Gov work for us or the Nattie Gas Guys?!

Re: Does the Gov work for us or the Nattie Gas Guys?!

Author: : midnightangler

Date: : 2012/7/30 13:53:14

URL:

Quote:

Afish

Second paragraph down, third line: "..., as long as local communities approve. ". Sounds like the local community does have a say.

Read more carefully - the local community only has a say if you live in New York state.

The PA state government has actually banned local communities from imposing their own standards in the state of pennsylvania.

edit i realize now I'm echoing what bikerfish has already said, as I read down further.