My availability is pretty tight, so I can't commit to anything. But I'd LOVE to lead a group on a small stream somewhere. Once dates are finalized, I can find out if I can swing it.

Of course, as far as streams, in certain areas I am very knowledgable, in other areas I am not knowledgable at all, and in yet others I'm knowledgable but can't take people on the streams I know, since they were shown to me by others and I won't give up their secrets. But this is going to be the case with ALL of us.

For most small PA streams, this is not something that would be done by gathering a large number of people together on an outing. It's just difficult to fish a 5-10 foot wide stream with a large number of guys. Perhaps you gather, and then split into groups of 3 or 4, each group with a leader.

Josey, I don't wanna put words in Swattie's mouth, but I'm guessing we're talking about much smaller, less famous streams than those.
