Yeah, they'll be pretty small. 5-10 feet wide on average, maybe opening up to 15 ft or so in spots. As far as rods I'd say anything up to 8' is probably just fine. Longer than that and you'll be limited to some degree, but there will be spots you can still work effectively with a 9' rod...in some cases it will be an advantage. I'll bring my backup rod to loan out if need be...7'0 4wt.
