

Subject: : Beginner Forum

Topic: : Tick Advice for "New" Outdoorsmen

Re: Tick Advice for "New" Outdoorsmen

Author: : PoconoPaul

Date: : 2012/8/1 20:45:49

URL:

You know when it comes to ticks, I often wonder what their purpose is. It's got to be one of the most useless contributors to the natural world. It's sole contribution is making animals and people ill. Hate them little bastards.

If we could exterminate one critter entirely without affecting others they'd be at the top of my list. Mosquitos follow in a close second.

Glad you found it before it caused any serious damage.