We've been on the waters of western PA quite a bit lately, and we made a trip up to a couple of our favorite stretches of water Sunday-Tuesday. The first evening was terribly slow, but the next day paid off big. Quite a few fish were brought to hand over 2 days, and here's a few of the beauties. All of these broke the 15" mark and a couple pushed 20". The fly in the one's mouth is 6" long, and they ate it up with abandon yesterday evening, but white was the ticket all in all. Enjoy and keep the shots coming. There's nothing quite like SMB's!!
