Felt soles are fine. 1 fly only. Don't worry about slinkies.

Check out my blog I had posted on this site for yarn eggs. A few techniques on there for a more sturdy egg.

My favorite colors for steelhead are all salmon, egg with a salmon dot, blue with a pink dot, and blood red.

Try sucker spawn , estaz and crystal meth up there too. I do really well in Erie later in the season on basic nymphs on steelhead. Princes, Hares ears, pheasant tails.

Check out the events forum for a Steelhead JAM in Erie in the Fall. You'll have a bunch of seasoned guys up there to ask questions and have some hands on help.
