Thanks again. In the surf I'll probably be barefoot, in swimming gear. But for the inlet I'll probably wear shorts and the Simms shoes.

As far as the fly rod, I was planning on going with the floating line that's on it, unless strongly encouraged to buy a sinking or intermediate line. I'll probably stick to spinning gear in the ocean itself, but I do anticipate breaking out the fly rod and tossing some bucktails or clousers around the inlet walls. My impression was that it's mostly fishing the rock wall structures (i.e. not that deep), and a lot was pretty much surface or near surface fishing anyway. Make a new leader or two and I thought I'd be fine. If I need to get deeper I always have the spin outfits too.
