Well I ended up checking out French Creek below the fly stretch. Caught a two smallies on a small Clouser Minnow and two on a Hares Ear. Surprisingly the two bigger (around 8") took the Hares Ear. Pretty good fight out of all of them. I think I will be targeting smallies more. They were a lot of fun. This is the first time I specifically went fishing for them, and really enjoyed it. Now I need to find some bigger ones.
