Ahhhh, good ol' steelhead fever. Nothing quite like manically watching weather reports and stream gauges at all hours of the day and night. Gotta love praying for rain, but of course not too much, or too heavy, or...Oh, and obviously the rain has to fall within the 16-24 hour window before my planned trip. And the crowds, who doesn't love a good crowd?

Moral of story: I think I need to live closer to Erie to truly enjoy steelhead fishing.
