Moral of story: I think I need to live closer to Erie to truly enjoy steelhead fishing.

True that. I never got it right last year. I had 4 times fishing between 38cfs-68cfs and then one time fishing 500cfs(all on walnut gauge)

I need to try the ohio rivers this season. I sort of thought about it last year, but never did. My drive to them is 2.25-2.5 hours, so its about the same as going to erie tribs.
